

My personal impressions about the visit of the Spanish students in Luckenwalde

It was a week full of exciting nights & days, new impressions and a lot of hilarious moments. The whole exchange started on Friday 4th April, when the Spanish students arrived at the train station in Luckenwalde.

When I saw my host student Josep I felt very nervous because I didn't know what to do with him the whole week. Okay, I knew about our organised programme, but not about the individual thing.

Although my parents and I were really excited we managed the first day well. Josep and I took a little walk through the city and in the evening we met the others from the exchange project to go to a bar. Everything was fine and the mood was great.

So the first day passed by very fast. Josep made a very good impression on me and my family. We were both always doing fine together, so it was no problem to speak about several things.

After some night sleep, Josep and I decided to take the train to Berlin on Saturday. So we went to Berlin to visit the German Historic Museum, the Berlin Dom, the Alex shopping centre and the Kastanienallee. Back at home from our trip to Berlin we ate something and, unstopped by our exhaustion, we went to a birthday party of a friend in the evening.

On Sunday we had a nice volleyball tournament and a barbecue at the school. We all played for fun so everyone enjoyed the good mood and the great weather. In the evening we went to a bar to wind down the evening. The Spanish students always wanted to have some more action and some more party in the whole week. For our amazement they didn't get tired or sleepy at all. They just wanted to continue going out at night. Nevertheless Josep and I have managed it to get up just in time on Monday morning. On this day we had the German lesson in the assembly hall and the Spanish students had a trip through Luckenwalde. In the afternoon the whole group ate some ice cream and we had fun on the Boulevard in Luckenwalde. In the evening I went, together with Josep and some others from the project, to an Italian restaurant in Luckenwalde. At the restaurant we had a really nice dinner and also a lot of fun.

Tuesday was the official day to visit our German capital Berlin. We took the train to the central station, where the Spanish students already had to change trains when they arrived from the airport. To give them a wider view of Berlin we decided to visit the Reichstag cupola with a height of 47m. We all had a great view on Berlin. After visiting the Reichstag we went on visiting Berlin. In the evening Josep and me were so tired that we did not manage to stay awake longer than until 9 p.m..

On Wednesday we had our trip to Potsdam, where we also held our "presentations under the umbrella". The name occurred because we had to give our presentations about the famous sights in Potsdam with the help of umbrellas because we had such a bad weather.

Unfortunately Thursday was the last day of the visit of the Spanish students in Germany. At school we spoke about the project again. Our German group also led the Spanish students to the train station where we all said "Goodbye!".

The week with the Spanish guys was full of stunning moments. For us Germans it was packed with new information and experiences. It was just great!
