

My personal impressions about the project week with our Spanish partner students

I really enjoyed the week with the Spanish partner students. Especially with my personal student Jaime Macia. As I saw him the first time in Luckenwalde, I did not know which one of the students will be "mine". So I have asked each of the Spanish students who Jaime is. Consequently I have found him and was positively surprised at him. As we went home I was seriously confused by his confident English skills. Amongst others we have spoken about the climate differences between Spain and Germany. Because of this point he told me in our region we have a lot of unnecessary water which could be used much more better from the inhabitants of Barcelona. Friday evening we have met other students again in a pub. I was stunned of the partying-ability of the Spanish students. In this pub I felt that he was alike me. We like the same kind of music, the same girls and the same German beer. Also I was surprised as he said me, that he normally sleep till eleven or twelve o'clock at the weekend. At the evening we were at a party, where he was for me and my friends like an old buddy. I thought that it is not normal and it is not normal that a person which I know one day is like an old friend. At the next day he said his first German words to us: "Iche hassen Regen", my family and I were very surprised and had a fit of laughter. At the next day were Mika and I the guides in Luckenwalde for the Spain students. After a few minutes the girls started to sing some pop songs but I was frightened of it because that is not normal for me. But I was glad to be part of the project as we guided the tour, too. Tuesday was like a magic day, since Tuesday was no difference between German and English. I was able to speak both languages if I wanted to do it. It is hard to say but I was really happy at Thursday, the last day with the Spain students. I really liked them but it was hard to me to sleep each night maximal five or four hours. I hope we will have great weather in Barcelona to have fun with our Spanish students.
